THOSE WONDERFUL YEARS

Presented by the Longview High School Viewettes, Cheerleaders, Greenjackets, and Majorettes

Act I America 1920-1930

The twenties provided a decade never to be forgotten. We can never forget such sights and sounds as Louis Armstrong and his jazz bands, Babe Ruth and his mighty bat, flagpole sitting, prohibition, and of course, the wild, wild Charleston.

"Five Foot Two" – Beth Brown, Teresa Denson, Teresa Foster, Beth Friend, Leretha Gage, Wanza Garlon, Connie Hargis, Lynne Joyner, Cheryl Kennedy, Sharon Lunsford, June Mayfield, Linda McLain, Vickie Neeley, Beth Peteet, Rita Portley, Debbie Segars, Etta Wilson, Terri Woomer.

"Someone To Watch Over Me" – Kathy Lloyd

"Take Me Out To The Ballgame" – Crystal Anderson, June Bivins, Mary Cheek, Janice Compton, Debbie Drake, Judy Dworin, Susan Garrett, Sharen Harris, Jeannie Haupt, Jane Ellis Porter, Lynn Rader, Elaine Ruthven, Linda Welch, Rossanna Williams, Debra Wisenbaker, Charlotte Woods.

Act II America 1930-1940

The thirties meant glamour and excitement for America. Americans witnessed the repeal of prohibition and the advancement of radio with such stars as Kate Smith and Orson Welles. The Hollywood Dream Factory brought us Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, Harlow and Gable, and "Gone With The Wind."

"The Way You Look Tonight" – Clifford Lee

"Beer Barrel Polka" – Terese Anderson, Louise Bivins, Patsy Bussey, Debbie Greer, Teri Herren, Debbie Hethcock, Tamra Kirl, Ruth Mayfield, Nancy Potter, Peggy Riddle, Becky Tramel, Lynn Zimmerman.

"Theme song from "Gone With The Wind" – Sheila Bishop

Act III America 1940-1950

The forties were darkened and sorrowed by the war. The horror of Pearl Harbor contrasted sharply with the thrill and excitement of V. J. Day. The bright moments of this decade included the Lindy Hop, Casey Stengel, and theater hits such as "South Pacific" and "Oklahoma."

"Night and Day" – Kathryn Avery, June Bivins, Anna Mackey, Vickie Neeley.

"When You Wish Upon A Star", "Somewhere Over The Rainbow" – Beth Mitchell, "Miss Longview."

"Welcome Home Soldier!", "Peter Gunn Theme" – Shonda Dauphin.

"They're Either Too Young or Too Old" – Specialty group – Cynthia Adair, Crystal Anderson, Beth Brown, Sharen Harris, Jeannie Haupt, Sandy Hawkins, Beth Peteet, Lynn Rader, Debbie Segars.

"If I Loved You" – Beth Mitchell and Clifford Lee.

Act IV America 1950-1960

The fifties brought personality to America, perhaps more so than any other decade. We were made aware of such names as Marilyn Monroe, James Dean, Willie Mays, and Rock Hudson. A new form of music took over the nation, led by the King of Rock and Roll, Elvis Presley.

Act V America 1960-1970

The past decade in our history brought us another war. Though our soldiers fought in a country far away, our news media brought it close to home. Miracles, such as open heart surgery and men on the moon, managed to overshadow the tragedy of war. Super bowls, hippies, and White House weddings made it a decade to remember.
